INTRODUCING THE THEME FOR THE YEAR

Over the summer, as part of the weekly meetings I have with the other parish and school staff who make up my leadership team, we decided that it would be a good thing to have a theme to frame the upcoming year. After a brief period of discussion, we landed on this one:

In Illo uno unum

Catchy, isn't it? (haha). If you're wondering what that is, it is a Latin phrase that also happens to be the official motto of Pope Leo XIV. It translates into English as, "In the one Christ, we are one." The phrase is taken from one of St. Augustine's commentaries on the psalms, in which he reflects on this and asks how it is that we Christians are all one? He answers with that phrase, going on to use the scriptural image that Christ is the head and all of us are members of the body (cf. Colossians 1:18).

There is something amazing about the human body. When all of the parts are working together, a person can accomplish feats so extraordinary it almost defies logic. A properly trained person can climb Mount Everest, using just his or her own body strength to do it. There are people all over who can start running and not stop until they have finished a marathon. Or what about, perhaps, the most amazing accomplishment of all? A woman, using nothing other than her own body, can grow a baby inside her for nine months and then share that baby with the world.

At the same time, when even a small part of the body isn't working properly or in sync with the rest, things can fall apart quickly. My little toe might be, size-wise, one of the smallest parts of my body. But if I'm walking barefoot in my room and accidentally smash it into the leg of my bed . . . trust me, that's enough to bring my entire body to a halt. Or, if an aggressive wasp stings me, my entire body instantly and instinctively reacts, even though the portion of skin that stinger pokes through is less than a millimeter in diameter.

Our parish is also a body, and all of us are members of it. With all of us working together, united under a common vision, there is almost no limit to what we can accomplish. In any body as large as our parish, of course there will always be diversity. There will be differences in backgrounds, differences in opinions, differences in priorities, and on, and on. That's human life. But diversity can go in two ways. And it all depends where our eyes are. (Yes, our eyes!) If our eyes are focused on those differences, then diversity becomes disunity and the doors open for Satan to enter and sow division. But when our eyes are fixed on Christ, we set aside our personal preferences for the sake of him and the common good of the whole body; diversity becomes a source of strength that helps the whole body grow to the full stature in Christ (cf. Ephesians 4:13). So let us this year fix our eyes on Christ and, as one united body, work to fulfill the great mission he has for our parish.

God bless,

Rev. John Paul Walker, O.P.

Father John Paul Walker, O.P.

THE POWER OF THE ROSARY

"If our age in its pride laughs at and rejects Our Lady's Rosary, a countless legion of the most saintly men of every age and of every condition have not only held it most dear and have most piously recited it but have also used it at all times as a most powerful weapon to overcome the devil, to preserve the purity of their lives, to acquire virtue more zealously, in a word, to promote peace among men."

- Pope Pius XI

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY—SEPTEMBER 21, 2025

This Sunday, September 21, is Catechetical Sunday, a day dedicated to celebrating and commissioning catechists—those who volunteer their time to teach the Catholic faith—and an opportunity for the entire Church community to reflect on sharing the faith and living out the Gospel. This year's theme, "Always be ready to give an explanation . . . for a reason for your hope" (1 Peter 3:15), emphasizes the call to missionary discipleship and the importance of sharing the basis of one's hope in Christ. We will celebrate Catechetical Sunday by blessing all parents and catechists at all Masses this weekend. Prayer cards with a Prayer for Catechists are available at the entrances to the church—please take one.

NEEDS FOOD PANTRY COLLECTION

Before and after all Masses (except 6 p.m.) the weekend of October 4–5, the Ladies of Charity will be at the white van in the parking lot collecting items for NEEDS (North East Emergency Distribution Services) Food Pantry. NEEDS is an all-volunteer nonprofit that operates out of Kenwood Baptist Church. It is a registered 501(c)(3) coalition of area churches and civic organizations serving the poor in the community. In addition to the food pantry, NEEDS provides financial assistance for rent, utilities, and medical expenses; school supplies; and holds an annual winter HUGSS drive to collect hats, underwear, gloves, socks, and sweats to keep needy students warm throughout the school day. Contact Jean Wilkinson at (513) 498-5085 with any questions.

Most needed items at this time of year:

- Canned/Packaged Goods: Collard greens, salmon, rice and pasta mixes (with and without meat), Vienna sausages, black beans
- Personal Care Items: Laundry and dish soap; baby wipes; men's and women's adult diapers, all sizes; sanitary pads and tampons; toilet paper and paper towels

Always needed: Grocery store gift cards (Aldi, Kroger, Walmart, Meijer) or check/cash to help us purchase what we need when the need is urgent

2025 PARISH CENSUS & SURVEY—PAPER COPIES AVAILABLE

If you are a registered parishioner and did not receive the August email, please contact the parish office at parishoffice@stgertrude.org or (513) 561-5954. Thank you!

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY EXPLAINER

Tyler Castrucci
Director of Evangelization

Why Catechetical Sunday?

Each year, the Church celebrates Catechetical Sunday as a special way to bless catechists and call attention to this important ministry of the word. This year's theme, "Always be ready to give an explanation . . . for a reason for your hope" (1 Peter 3:15), speaks to the importance for all Catholics to have a deep understanding of the faith in order to effectively share the Good News with others.

What Is Catechesis?

The word "catechesis" comes from a Greek word meaning "to echo" or "resound" and is part of the Church's broader mission of evangelization. The tradition of the Church has long used this word to describe the handing on of the faith to those preparing to receive the sacraments, become Catholic, or any person seeking to deepen his or her knowledge of the faith. More than mere intellectual study of the faith, catechesis consists in handing on a holistic Catholic worldview, and, most importantly, leading a person into intimacy with Jesus Christ.

Is Catechesis Only for Children and Converts?

Catechesis is for everybody! While we most often associate catechesis, or what is sometimes called "religious education," with young people, Pope St. John Paul II described adult catechesis as the "principal form" of catechesis because adults have the greatest influence on society (Catechesi Tradendae 43). Receiving catechesis, then, is a lifelong journey.

What Is a Catechist?

Simply speaking, a catechist is someone who guides another person in the faith. In the broad sense, every baptized person is called to catechize in his or her own way. Parents have a particular responsibility to be the primary catechists for their children. In addition, the ministry of catechist is carried out in a unique way by those who serve the Church in a public manner, either as a volunteer or paid staff.

Why Be a Catechist?

While every baptized person is called to catechize, some are also called to officially serve as a catechist for their local parishes. This type of service is a calling, or a vocation. Being a catechist is not just a job or a way to help the parish, but a positive call by God to serve him in the ministry of the word.

Do You Feel Called to Be a Catechist?

We always need more faithful and available disciples to help in the ministry of catechesis at St. Gertrude Parish, both for adults and children. From our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) program, to adult Bible studies and the Become Catholic program, catechists are vital. If you feel called to be a catechist, please contact our director of evangelization, Tyler Castrucci, and we can help you discern how to share your gifts with the parish!

BECOME CATHOLIC COME & SEE DINNER—LARGEST TURNOUT EVER!

On Monday, September 8, we welcomed over 70 people to the Become Catholic Come & See dinner! This was, by far, the largest turnout we have had at this event. Thank-you to everyone who invited and/or accompanied someone to the dinner. And a huge thank-you to Lynn Alley who made 11 trays of lasagna! The large turnout is a testament to the power of personal invitation! Please keep all of the inquirers in your prayers as they explore the Catholic faith.

L'ALTO: HIGH SCHOOL CANONIZATION CELEBRATION RECAP

On Sunday, September 7, the Catholic Church celebrated the canonization of two young Italian saints, St. Carlo Acutis and St. Pier Giorgio Frassati. While momentous for the Church, the canonization of St. Carlo and St. Pier Giorgio holds a special place in the hearts of the teens involved in St. Gertrude Parish's L'alto: High School Youth Ministry, which is named after Pier Giorgio's phrase, "Verso l'alto," an Italian phrase meaning "To the heights!" or "Toward the top!" The witness of these two young saints shows the teens—and all of us!—that sainthood is possible and that God's grace enables us to be supremely courageous in our desires for holiness! The high schoolers were thrilled to celebrate their patron, St. Pier Giorgio, who, as Pope Leo XIV stated: "bore witness to God with his joy of living and of being a Christian in prayer, friendship and charity." As a group, we gathered to listen to Pope Leo's canonization homily where he stated: "... not to squander our lives, but to direct them upwards and make them masterpieces." The celebration also included a competition aptly titled, "The Frassati Feat," and an epic Italian feast.

Our L'alto: High School Youth Ministry seeks to bring high schoolers into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ so that they may come to believe in their deepest identity as beloved sons and daughters of God the Father. We do this through living out Acts 2:42 where we encounter Jesus through shared prayer, clear and relevant teaching, experiences of communal life, and opportunities to live out the call to be disciples. If you are a high schooler or know one seeking to grow in his or her faith and desiring community, please join us at L'alto! We meet most Sundays from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Parish Center! Together we can strive to the heights of holiness: Verso l'alto!

DRAWING CHILDREN CLOSER TO CHRIST

Parishioner Claudia Roberts, a senior at Mount Notre Dame High School, recently completed her senior capstone project, which combined two things she loves—God and working with children. With the help of our coordinator of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, Mary Beth Thiemann, Claudia created an interactive tour of St. Gertrude Parish's sacristy that included faith-based activities for children, giving three tours in total. With assistance from Brother Raphael, Father Titus, and Father Luke, the children were able to learn what goes on before Mass and which sacred items are stored in the sacristy. The children also spent time in adoration during the Moms and Littles Holy Hour, heard Claudia read a Christian children's book, engaged in faith-based crafts, and savored snacks in the Parish Center. Claudia said she was "grateful to have had the opportunity to share my love for God with the children of our parish and to grow in my own faith through this experience. It was truly a joy to see the children's excitement and desire to learn more about our faith."

CATHOLIC EDUCATION

The Love of Home Meets The Life of the Church

I CAN'T IMAGINE BEING ANYWHERE ELSE

*Sister Mariana Thayer, O.P.
Vice Principal of SGS*

A few weeks ago, something happened in the cafeteria that stopped me in my tracks.

Students in grades 2–8 and all of our teachers had gathered for the first household meeting of the year. Excitement filled the air as children clustered in their household groups, chatting and laughing as they waited for the meeting to begin.

I found my group and stood near several 8th graders. One of them turned to me with a thoughtful look and asked, “Sister, how are things going for you at SGS so far?” It was a simple question, but his sincerity gave me pause. I told him how grateful I am to be here. Then I asked him the same. Without hesitation, he replied: “I can’t imagine being anywhere else.”

That moment has stayed with me. It beautifully captured what Catholic education is meant to be—a true home away from home. A place where children don’t just learn facts, but where they are formed in faith, surrounded by a community that feels like family.

At St. Gertrude School, our household system plays a vital role in creating this sense of belonging. Students from every grade are united into households that meet throughout the year for prayer, service, and fellowship. In these gatherings, younger children look up to older ones, and older students take on the joy and responsibility of mentorship. Together, they walk with their teachers and peers as we all deepen our friendship with Christ.

This is the spirit of communion that makes St. Gertrude School unique. It is what allows a student to look around and say with confidence, “I can’t imagine being anywhere else.”

If you’ve never considered St. Gertrude School for your family, we invite you to take a closer look. Come see what makes our community so special—the joy of our students, the presence of the Dominican sisters, and a tradition of nearly 100 years of excellence in both faith and academics. We would love to welcome you home.

INVEST IN CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Mass will begin at 10 a.m. with celebrant Reverend Steve Angi, vicar general of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and police chaplain. People of all faiths are invited to join for this special celebration. Refreshments and fellowship will follow Mass.

PASTORAL CARE

Are you or a loved one unable to attend Mass due to illness or being homebound? As a sign of Christ's love, our parish community earnestly desires to bring comfort and healing to these individuals. Please call the parish office at (513) 561-5954, and we will direct you to the most appropriate ministry.

Here are ways we can help you:

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

This healing sacrament is given to those facing serious physical or mental illness, advanced age, or surgery due to one of these. When one is near death, anointing is offered as part of the Last Rites, along with the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist.

Communion to the Sick or Homebound

Our priests and lay ministers are available to bring Holy Communion to individuals who are unable to attend Sunday Mass due to illness or being homebound. This important ministry is a vital sign of the parish community's love and support for all of our members.

Prayers for the Sick or Deceased

Each week, our bulletin lists the names of individuals who are sick or recently deceased so that our entire parish community may pray for them. Simply contact the parish office to add yourself or a family member to this list.

PRAYER MINISTRY FOR THE DYING

Is your loved one actively dying? Contact our Prayer Ministry for the Dying. Members of this ministry pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet for those approaching death. To request prayers for your loved one, please call Pat Collins at (513) 265-1897. If you would like to join this ministry, visit stgertrude.org/prayersforthedying to learn more.
