A REFLECTION ON THE EVE OF THE ELECTION

In just a few days, Americans will once again head to polling places throughout our country to cast ballots for many important offices. At this time, we don't know whether the Senate or the House will remain Republican or become Democrat. We don't know who the next governor of Ohio will be or all the men and women who will be representing us in our state legislature.

What we know right now is that, come late Tuesday night or perhaps early Wednesday morning, roughly half of the country's population, and roughly half of Ohio's population, will be elated and roughly half will be disappointed. However "your" candidates do on Tuesday, my first piece of advice is this: If your candidates win, don't gloat; if your candidates lose, don't mope. Neither reaction is befitting a child of God.

What I also know is that, no matter who wins and loses, our fundamental vocation—holiness—remains the same. It's always easy to complain about what's wrong in the world. It's much harder to look inside to examine what's wrong with me and to dedicate myself to changing that. If I'm not already living the life of a living saint, then my primary attention needs to be on my own shortcomings, not the shortcomings of others (whether those "others" are gubernatorial candidates or my next door neighbor whose yard proudly displays signs for the "wrong" candidates).

For all of you who are members of the laity, there is another thing that remains the same: A big part of your own vocation is to work to help to transform this world (the "city of man," as St. Augustine called it) to more and more resemble the City of God. While government and politics are tools in this transformation, and sometimes very important ones, it is merely one of many, many tools at your disposal. The deeper and more fundamental aspect of the lay vocation is not so much to change political structures as it is to change the culture. Every lay person is called to participate in this transformation of culture. This comes about first and foremost through your own witness of life. Thus the call, each day and in every time and place, is to live a life of holiness and virtue such that you become "leaven" in those spheres of society where you operate every day.

Transforming the culture also means speaking the truth about God, the human person, the reality of objective good and evil, and so forth. The arenas where each person does this might be very different, as are the methods and audiences. But all are called to this witness to truth. This obligation remains the same, no matter how supportive or hostile the truth any given government or culture might be. Equally important is the promotion of all that is truly beautiful and authentically good. Truth, beauty, and goodness. In philosophy, they are known as the "transcendentals." In common language, all three of them lead people to God.

So while on one hand things in our country might look very different by the middle of this coming week, in the end, much more remains the same than changes. Leaders, governments, and laws come and go, but "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever" (Hebrews 13:8). And while we are currently citizens of this great nation of ours, fundamentally, "our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ" (Philippians 3:20).

God bless,

Rev. John Paul Walker, O.P.

Father John Paul Walker, O.P.

FROM THE DIARY OF ST. FAUSTINA

"I saw my Guardian Angel, who ordered me to follow him. In a moment I was in a misty place full of fire in which there was a great crowd of suffering souls. They were praying fervently, but to no avail, for themselves; only we can come to their aid... I asked these souls what their greatest suffering was. They answered me in one voice that their greatest torment was longing for God. I saw Our Lady visiting the souls in Purgatory. The souls call her, 'The Star of the Sea.' She brings them refreshment. . . . I heard an interior voice which said, 'My mercy does not want this, but justice demands it.' Since that time, I am in closer communion with the suffering souls."

MEET A PARISHIONER: TINA BASCOM

This is the ninth edition of our Meet a Parishioner bulletin feature! Each month, we spotlight a family or parishioner to help you get to know your fellow parishioners, build a sense of community, and stay connected in Christ. This month, meet Tina Bascom!

Q: Would you please tell us a little bit about yourself?
Tina Bascom: I've been married to my husband, Dan, for 38 years, and we've raised three sons (Nate, John, and Sam) in Madeira. I'm from a Navy family in which my Dad, a Navy chaplain and later a pastor, served at sea and also in several other places, including San Diego and the Philippines, where I spent most of my growing up years. I grew up in a Protestant home, but both of my parents had strong respect and gratitude for the Catholic Church. Dad grew up in the Eastern Orthodox faith, and Mom was engaged with many Catholics in her lifelong pro-life efforts.

Q: How did you first come to find St. Gertrude Parish?
Tina: I found the parish through my good friend Mary Frances Melink, who became my sponsor when I went through OCIA at St. Gertrude Parish, joining in full Communion with the Church.

Q: Would you share a little bit about your conversion story and what drew you to the Catholic faith?
Tina: I am very grateful for the Christian tradition I was brought up in, but felt I was missing out on the rich tradition and all the beautiful sacraments the Church offers. The two sacraments available to me as a Protestant were Baptism and Communion, which, thankfully, I'd received. But in the case of both (and especially the Eucharist), there was not a full appreciation for what the sacraments mean. Communion was regarded as merely symbolic, not truly the Body and Blood of Christ. I came to believe the words of John 6 which are proclaimed at every Mass. I first heard this clearly expressed by Bishop Robert Barron and learned that this is the stance of the Church: the Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian faith" and truly becomes Jesus' Body and Blood during Mass. As I went through Become Catholic with Father John Mark Solitario, O.P., beginning in 2020 (during COVID!), everything just seemed to resonate with me. I loved the Liturgy of the Word leading into the Liturgy of the Eucharist. All the doctrines and the authority of the Scriptures and Tradition made so much sense to me! I moved toward the sacraments of Reconciliation and Confirmation, and gratefully entered the Church during Easter 2021.

Q: What do you love about St. Gertrude Parish?
Tina: I love that it is full of people who are genuinely seeking Christ and who want to reverently worship him, receive the sacraments, say the prayers at Mass (the Penitential Act, the Creed, and the Lord's Prayer), and keep growing in their faith! I love that the Dominicans have an emphasis on preaching, which truly shows in their wonderful homilies! I love that there are always evangelization programs going on that help me grow as a disciple and invite others to do so as well. I love the school and that it teaches the children, from an early age, to cherish Jesus. I love that longtime parishioners are happy to embrace us newcomers. I love the fun parish dinners and picnics! I love driving by and seeing the Dominican novices and Sisters walking the sidewalks in front of the church. I love the annual pro-life display of crosses. I love the witness that St. Gertrude Parish is as it sits atop the hill of Madeira!

Q: In what ways are you involved at St. Gertrude Parish?
Tina: I've been a small group leader for the parish's Walking with Purpose (WWP) ministry for five years. It's been transformative in my life and is a way I've made many friends. I've had the joy of being an extraordinary minister of holy Communion—it's an honor to receive the consecrated hosts from the priest and repeat the words, "the Body of Christ," in offering it to each person. I spend time in the adoration chapel just resting in Jesus' presence and sometimes do the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises that my dad taught me about. I've taken advantage of some of the special evangelization activities like book studies and the women's retreat. All of these have helped me grow as a disciple.

Q: What is a fun or unique fact about your family?
Tina: Back in the day, my dad was a body builder in California with gurus like Jack LaLanne! He played football at the Naval Academy, where his '55 team won the Sugar Bowl. Our youngest son also attended USNA. Two of our sons were All-Americans in soccer. Our eldest son, Nate, got married in the Church and plans to have our first grandchild baptized in January. Our youngest son, Sam, is also getting married in the Church. I am hopeful that both Nate and Sam will move toward joining in full communion with the Church, and I am thankful that my family members all seek to follow our Lord.

Q: Do you have a patron or favorite saint?
Tina: I chose St. Therese of Lisieux for my Confirmation saint. I like her "little way" philosophy of doing small everyday actions with extraordinary love.

God is always ready to forgive. Experience his merciful love through the sacrament of Reconciliation. Priests are available to hear confessions Monday–Friday at 4 p.m., Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m., Saturdays at 3:30 p.m., or by appointment.

As we approach next week's election, there are many issues that Catholics need to be aware of. Neither political party has a monopoly on Catholic teaching; it is each person's responsibility to judge candidates by their adherence to sanctity of all life and their care for all people. To support you in this discernment, the archdiocese developed iVoteCatholic. For the past several weeks, we have shared ivotecatholic.org content on the seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching. To view this content, visit stgertrude.org/bulletin and check out the September 20 and 27 and October 4, 11, 18, and 25 bulletins.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Theme 7: Care for God's Creation

From Pope St. John Paul II to Pope Francis, care for creation has been an integral part of Catholic social teaching. "Everything is connected. Concern for the environment thus needs to be joined to a sincere love of our fellow human beings and an unwavering commitment to resolving the problems of society . . . we human beings are united as brothers and sisters on a wonderful pilgrimage woven together by the love God has for each of his creatures" (#92, 93 Pope Francis). When we do things to protect the earth and care for it, we show reverence for God, the creator of all. Under this principle fall ues such as laws governing corporate and individual use of environmental resources (including land, water, and air) which impact all living things. Learn more at ivotecatholic.org.

HELP SUSTAIN

The Mission of Catholic Education

For generations, St. Gertrude Parish has made an extraordinary commitment to Catholic education. Rooted in the Dominican tradition, St. Gertrude School serves as an extension of the parish's mission, forming young people in faith, reason, and virtue while preparing them to pursue truth and live lives of service to Christ and his Church.

Today, nearly 400 students benefit from this commitment. Through the generosity of our parish community, our students receive an education that places Christ at the center of intellectual and spiritual formation, where the pursuit of academic excellence is inseparable from the pursuit of holiness.

Such an education requires a substantial investment, one that tuition alone does not fully cover. Through the longstanding generosity of St. Gertrude Parish, our school families, and benefactors, we are able to sustain the exceptional academic and spiritual formation that defines a Dominican education while remaining committed to making it accessible to Catholic families. This shared investment reflects our parish's enduring commitment to the formation of future generations. The SGS Annual Fund is an essential part of sustaining this mission.

Last year, the generosity of 137 school families, parishioners, alumni, and friends helped raise more than $104,000. These gifts supported meaningful investments in campus safety and security, improvements to our school facilities, and a significant advancement in faculty compensation. Today, every SGS teacher is compensated at the top of the archdiocesan salary scale, an achievement that strengthens our ability to attract and retain exceptional Catholic educators.

As we begin the 2026–2027 Annual Fund campaign, our goal is to raise $100,000 to continue this important work. This year's priorities include strengthening academic instruction, supporting the ongoing Catholic and Dominican formation of our faculty, expanding student services to meet the needs of our growing enrollment, and continuing investments in the safety and stewardship of our campus.

These investments bear fruit far beyond the classroom. The children formed today at St. Gertrude School will become the future parents, parishioners, religious, priests, and lay leaders entrusted with carrying the faith into the next generation.

We invite all members of our parish community to prayerfully consider supporting the St. Gertrude School Annual Fund. Every gift, regardless of size, is an expression of shared responsibility for the formation of our children and the future of Catholic education in our parish.

Your support makes this important work possible and helps ensure that future generations of students may receive the gift of a Catholic and Dominican education.

Thank you for your continued generosity and steadfast commitment to the mission of St. Gertrude School.

Here are ways we can help you:

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick
This healing sacrament is given to those facing serious physical or mental illness, advanced age, or surgery due to one of these. When one is near death, anointing is offered as part of the Last Rites, along with the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist.

Communion to the Sick or Homebound
Our priests and lay ministers are available to bring Holy Communion to individuals who are unable to attend Sunday Mass due to illness or being homebound. This important ministry is a vital sign of the parish community's love and support for all of our members.

Prayers for the Sick or Deceased
Each week, our bulletin lists the names of individuals who are sick or recently deceased so that our entire parish community may pray for them. Simply contact the parish office to add yourself or a family member to this list.

PRAYER MINISTRY FOR THE DYING

Is your loved one actively dying? Contact our Prayer Ministry for the Dying. Members of this ministry pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet for those approaching death. To request prayers for your loved one, please call Pat Collins at (513) 265-1897. If you would like to join this ministry, visit stgertrude.org/prayersforthedying to learn more.

CINCINNATI WOMEN'S CONFERENCE | NOVEMBER 7

All women are invited to step away from everyday life to attend the Cincinnati Women's Conference on November 7, from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Our Lady of the Valley Parish (330 West Vine Street). Through inspiring talks, Mass, prayer time, and fellowship with other women of faith, you will come to more deeply know who God created you to be and how he is calling you to live—and return home renewed. Whether you are seeking encouragement, clarity, healing, or simply a day to reconnect with the Lord, this is for you.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

The annual Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) collection is the weekend of November 14 and 15. The CCHD is the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' effort to end the cycle of poverty in America by funding organizations that help people help themselves. Contributing to the campaign is a unique opportunity to honor the dignity of the poor and create space for them to more fully participate in society. Visit usccb.org/cchd to learn more. Thank you for your support.

AN EVENING FOR YOUNG ADULTS | NOVEMBER 20

Mount St. Mary's seminarians and Queen City Catholic invite all young adults to join us for BEHOLD on Friday, November 20, at St. Lawrence (3680 Warsaw Ave, Cincinnati). Adoration begins at 7 p.m., with prayer teams, music and worship, and the opportunity for confession. After adoration, stick around for a social with music, snacks, cocktails, and other beverages! This is a wonderful opportunity for young adults to encounter Christ, grow in faith, and connect with others in the young adult community. Learn more at queencitycatholic.org/behold-event.

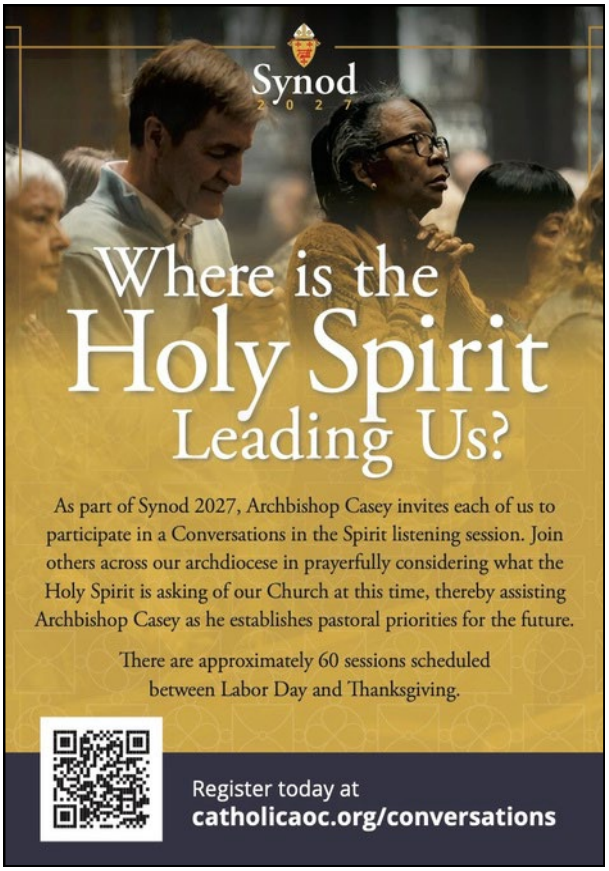

TASTE OF LEBANON FOOD FESTIVAL | NOVEMBER 22

The St. Anthony of Padua Maronite Catholic Church (2530 Victory Parkway, Cincinnati, OH 45206) invites you to its 10:30 a.m. liturgy and Taste of Lebanon Mediterranean Food Festival on Sunday, November 22. The festival (12 to 7 p.m.) will include delicious mediterranean cuisine (carryout and dine-in options), Arabic coffee, religious items and souvenirs, traditional dancing, and free admittance and parking.
